MEMO ANNOUNCES PARTNERSHIP WITH RBS LYNK TO PROVIDE PAYMENT PROCESSING

Camp Hill, Pennsylvania — Merchants Express Money Order Company, Inc. (MEMO) is pleased to announce RBS Lynk as its preferred payment processor. RBS Lynk, the U.S. payment-processing division of The Royal Bank of Scotland Group, provides reliable, affordable payment solutions to businesses nationwide.

“Our goal is to provide our merchants with very competitive payment processing fees through our new partnership with RBS Lynk,” said Hans L. Leyer, MEMO vice president of sales and marketing.

RBS Lynk has certifications on many leading point-of-sale terminals and integrated payment systems. Merchants can utilize their existing system or ask an RBS Lynk sales representative to recommend a new terminal to meet their current and future payment processing needs. For merchants with an integrated point-of-sale system, RBS Lynk offers program interfaces to most of the leading point-of-sale systems on the market today. RBS Lynk supports credit, debit, EBT and fuel cards.

Retail merchants should review their recent payment processing statements and ask MEMO for a complimentary rate analysis and consultation on how RBS Lynk can simplify their card processing and save them money on their bottom line. RBS Lynk provides its merchants with the highest quality, most responsive customer service in the industry.

For more information, call MEMO at 800-922-8079 and ask for the sales department or email us at sales@memoco.com.
