

RPG Programmer

Job Requirements

- Analysis and programming for projects assigned
- Provide programming services (emergencies, questions, documentation, meetings)
- Maintain clear communications with all employees and follow procedures established in the Human Resources Handbook and by managers
- Participate in business/service improvement activities
- Interface with MEMO's customers and business partners to ensure the timely completion of joint ventured projects
- Timeliness and accuracy in providing programming and analysis of projects.
- Thoroughness in performing all tasks assigned under "key activities".

Physical Requirements

The normal work position is seated. The position involved standing and moving to other areas 10% of the time.

Essential Qualifications and Competencies

Must have strong programming and development skills in RPG/400 (specifically RPGile) on an IBM iSeries. Ability to handle multiple priorities and deadlines as a team player is crucial. Must be self-motivated and must be able to take initiative (self-direction). Must have excellent organizational and communication skills.

General Responsibilities

1. Analyze and program for Money Services, Sales, Compliance & Credit.
2. Interface with MEMO's customers and business partners to ensure the timely completion of all joint-ventured projects.
3. Provide support for any other information technology-related task or project that will contribute to and/or enhance MEMO's business operations.
4. Provide technical and business application support to all MEMO employees, using any hardware or software system.

If interested in applying, please send resume and cover letter to pstuart@memoco.com